The project focuses on connecting multidisciplinary specialists interested in research and healing of the transgenerational transmission of Holocaust trauma. A lot of untreated traumas from the collective catastrophe have been passed to the next generations. The aim is to exchange information and experience about this issue within the V4 countries and to bring new insights about healing of trauma for Jewish communities and for the specialists who work with this issue.

Presenters

Hungary: Tihamér Bako and Katalin Zana

Poland: Katarzyna Prot-Klinger and Lukasz Biedka
